First Secretary (Economic & Commerce)

No. Ban/Com/202/06/2023

November 29, 2023

Dear Mr. Sanan Angubolkul,

Embassy of India, Bangkok is pleased to inform that an ASEAN-India Millet Festival was successfully organised in Jakarta from 22-26 November 2023 by the Indian Mission to ASEAN in Jakarta in partnership with the National Food Agency (Badan Pangan Nasional) of Indonesia. The five day festival not only celebrated the International Year of Millets(IYM2023) but also laid emphasis on increasing awareness about Millets products and highlighted the policy measures on promotion of Millets and Millet products in India and ASEAN.

2. Given the resounding success of the Jakarta edition of the ASEAN India Millet Festival, a mirror event is now scheduled in New Delhi on 14-15 December 2023. The event will provide an excellent opportunity for businesses and individuals alike, involved and interested in Millets based food grains.

3. In this regard, the Embassy of India, Bangkok requests the Thai Chamber of Commerce & Board of Trade of Thailand (TCC&BOT) to nominate two representatives from industry/ health expert-scientist / nutritionist / doctor to attend the 'ASEAN-India Millet Festival 2023'. Selected delegates will be provided Round Trip economy airfare, hotel accommodation maximum 3 nights, and all three meals will be arranged at the hotel. A tentative programme of the event is enclosed herewith.

4. We request you to please circulate this information to concerned members and encourage them to participate in the above event. The delegates are requested to fill in the online Registration Form via the following link: <https://forms.gle/tTyZZ7CMEXSPMN33A> The For further information, you may contact Ms. Tattaya Yeekoh, Marketing Assistant at Email: com3.bangkok@mea.gov.in, Tel: 02-2580300-5 ext. 151.

Yours sincerely,

(Dharmendra Singh)
